

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. 99-90030-01

TONY BROWN,

HON. GEORGE CARAM STEEH

Defendant.

_____ /

ORDER SETTING ASIDE VIOLATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE AND CONTINUING SUPERVISION

Mr. Brown plead guilty to a violation of his conditions of supervised release and the court adjourned sentencing to June 8, 2009. Probation Officer Russell LaForet has since reported to the court that Mr. Brown has made dramatic progress in attitude and compliance with his supervision. Importantly, he has secured regular employment and has refrained from the use of prohibited substances. The court is convinced that Mr. Brown has earned the opportunity to avoid the prison term envisioned by the guidelines of seven (7) to thirteen (13) months for the violation. Accordingly, the court hereby orders:

That the guilty plea is set aside and the violation charges DISMISSED. Mr. Brown shall be continued on supervision as previously ordered.
